The papers in this issue of the Illinois Historical Journal were commissioned by the Illinois State Historical Society for presentation at the Seventh Annual Illinois History Symposium, held in December, 1986. The Symposium was made possible through generous grants from the Illinois Humanities Council, the Illinois Bar Foundation, and the Sangamon County Bar Association.

Cover: Artist Harold Heaton's cartoon in the collections of the Illinois State Historical Library illustrates the problems arising from election of senators by the state legislatures. John D. Buenker's article on the Seventeenth Amendment, mandating direct election of senators, and other Progressive Era amendments starts on page 210.
