

ILLINOIS HISTORICAL JOURNAL

Volume LXXXII / Number 1 / Spring 1989

Contents

- 2 "A Samaritan had passed by": George Miller—Mormon Bishop,
Trailblazer, and Brigham Young Antagonist
Richard E. Bennett
- 17 Chicago Press Treatment of the Gangster, 1924–1931
Daniel McDonough
- 33 Edward Coles and the Constitutional Crisis in Illinois, 1822–1824
Robert M. Sutton
- 47 The Pioneer Squatter
Robert W. McCluggage
- 55 Book Reviews
- 72 Picture Credits

Cover: Tribune Tower, right foreground, rises majestically along Michigan Avenue. Editorials in the Chicago Tribune criticized the lawlessness and bloodshed fostered by gangsterism during the 1920s. In this issue, Daniel McDonough analyzes the reaction of the Tribune and three other Chicago newspapers to Prohibition-era violence and corruption. The article begins on page 17.